

SUSCEPTIVITY

Meaning: Susceptivity refers to the likelihood or tendency of individuals or groups to be affected by a particular influence or condition.

1. The researchers studied the susceptibility of different populations to the new vaccine.
2. Her susceptibility to peer pressure often led her to make decisions she later regretted.
3. Environmental factors can greatly influence the susceptibility of individuals to mental health disorders.
4. The team aimed to understand the susceptibility of various species to climate change impacts.
5. Their findings highlighted the susceptibility of young children to infectious diseases compared to adults.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/susceptivity>