

SUSPECT

Meaning: To believe or have an impression that someone may be guilty of a wrongdoing or is not telling the truth.

1. The detective had a strong reason to suspect the man in the black coat.
2. She began to suspect that her friends were hiding something from her.
3. After reviewing the evidence, the jury decided to suspect the defendant of the crime.
4. Many people suspect that the new policy may lead to unintended consequences.
5. He felt it was wrong to suspect someone without solid proof of their guilt.
6. The detective began to suspect that the alibi provided by the witness was not credible.
7. After reviewing the evidence, the jury had reason to suspect the defendant's involvement in the crime.
8. She always suspected that her coworker was taking credit for her ideas.
9. The teacher had to suspect foul play when several students scored unusually high on the test.
10. Despite his calm demeanor, the officer couldn't shake the feeling that something was off about the suspect.
11. The detective began to suspect that the alibi was fabricated.
12. She had a reason to suspect that her colleague was not being entirely truthful.
13. After reviewing the evidence, they had to suspect foul play in the incident.
14. He was a suspect in the case, but there was not enough proof to charge him.
15. Despite the rumors, she didn't want to suspect anyone without solid evidence.
16. She had a nagging feeling that her friend was hiding something, but she couldn't quite suspect what it was.
17. After reviewing the evidence, the police decided to suspect him as their primary suspect in the case.
18. It's important not to suspect someone without solid proof, as it can lead to misunderstandings.
19. He looked at the footprints in the snow and began to suspect that someone had been following him.

20. The detective began to suspect that the alibi was too perfect to be true.

21. She had a nagging feeling that something was off, but she couldn't put her finger on what made her suspect him.

22. After reviewing the evidence, the police decided to suspect multiple individuals in the case.

23. He didn't want to suspect anyone without solid proof, but the circumstances raised his concerns.

24. The sudden change in her behavior made her friends suspect that she was hiding something important.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suspect>