

SUSPECTABLE

Meaning: Suspectable: capable of being questioned or doubted; likely to raise suspicion or uncertainty.

1. The new evidence presented in court was suspectable and raised doubts about the defendant's guilt.
2. In certain lighting, the fabric appeared suspectable, leading to questions about its true color.
3. Her behavior during the investigation was suspectable, prompting the detectives to look closer into her alibi.
4. The results of the experiment were suspectable, indicating a possible flaw in the methodology used.
5. Given his history, his sudden change in attitude was suspectable to those who knew him well.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suspectable>