

SUSPICION

Meaning: Suspicion is a feeling or belief that someone is guilty of wrongdoing or that something is not as it seems.

1. Her sudden change in behavior raised suspicion among her friends.
2. The detective's keen eye caught the slightest hint of suspicion in the witness's testimony.
3. Despite the lack of evidence, his suspicion about their involvement lingered.
4. She could sense a growing suspicion in the room as the conversation turned tense.
5. His eyes darted around the room, betraying a deep-seated suspicion of everyone present.
6. Her sudden change in behavior raised my suspicion about her honesty.
7. The detective worked tirelessly to uncover the truth behind the suspicion that loomed over the case.
8. Despite the lack of evidence, there was a lingering suspicion that he had been involved in the crime.
9. His frequent absences from work prompted suspicion among his colleagues regarding his reliability.
10. She tried to dismiss the suspicion, but the whispering voices in the office only grew louder.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suspicion>