

SUSPICIOUS

Meaning: SUSPICIOUS: having or showing a cautious distrust of someone or something.

1. The detective had a suspicious look on his face as he examined the evidence.
2. She found it suspicious that he was always evasive when asked about his past.
3. His sudden change in behavior made her feel suspicious about his intentions.
4. The package arrived without a return address, which made her feel suspicious.
5. Despite his charming demeanor, there was something suspicious about his story.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suspicious>