

SUSPIRE

Meaning: 'SUSPIRE' refers to a soft, audible exhalation or sigh expressing relief or disappointment.

1. She let out a soft suspires of relief as the tension in the room began to fade.
2. With a gentle suspires, he turned away, trying to hide his disappointment.
3. The suspires escaping her lips echoed the weight of unspoken words.
4. In the quiet of the library, his suspires blended with the rustling pages of old books.
5. As he watched the sunset, a suspires of awe left him momentarily speechless.
6. She let out a soft suspires of relief when she finally received the news.
7. The poet's words seemed to suspires through the air, resonating with deep emotion.
8. As the sun set, the weary traveler could only suspires at the beauty of the landscape.
9. In the stillness of the night, she suspires, wishing for a moment of peace.
10. The teacher's gentle suspires encouraged her students to express their thoughts freely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suspire>