

SWAD

Meaning: Swad (noun): the soft, comforting texture or feel of a material or substance, often evoking a sense of warmth or luxury.

1. The swad of the garment felt luxurious against her skin.
2. He took a moment to appreciate the swad of the warm bread coming from the oven.
3. With a gentle swad, she wrapped the blanket around her shoulders.
4. The artist used a swad of color to bring the painting to life.
5. As they walked through the market, the swad of spices filled the air with tantalizing aromas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/swad>