

SWAG

Meaning: Swag (noun): a stylish, confident demeanor or appearance that attracts attention.

1. He walked into the room with such swag that everyone turned to look.
2. The event was filled with celebrities flaunting their swag on the red carpet.
3. She always knew how to style her outfits, exuding confidence and swag.
4. His collection of sneakers was the envy of his friends, showcasing his unique swag.
5. The marketing campaign aimed to capture the youthful swag of the brand.
6. He walked into the party with an undeniable swag that turned heads.
7. The brand's new line of clothing captures the essence of urban swag perfectly.
8. Her confidence and poise gave her a natural swag that impressed everyone.
9. They handed out free swag bags filled with promotional items at the event.
10. The rapper's unique style and charisma added to his overall swag on stage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/swag>