

SWAP

Meaning: SWAP (verb): To exchange one thing for another.

1. I decided to swap my usual coffee for a refreshing herbal tea today.
2. The kids were eager to swap their toys during the playdate to discover something new.
3. In the meeting, we discussed how to swap responsibilities for the upcoming project.
4. After realizing we had the same size shoes, I offered to swap with my friend.
5. They made a plan to swap houses for the summer vacation to experience a different lifestyle.
6. She decided to swap her apple for a banana at lunchtime.
7. They agreed to swap houses for the summer to experience different lifestyles.
8. He suggested they swap roles for the day to better understand each other's challenges.
9. The team members were excited to swap ideas during the brainstorming session.
10. We should swap our phone numbers to stay in touch after the event.
11. I decided to swap my book with her magazine for the weekend.
12. They agreed to swap their seats so that they could sit next to their friends.
13. During the game, players had the option to swap cards to improve their hands.
14. In a surprising turn of events, the two teams decided to swap coaches for the season.
15. The children were excited to swap toys during the playdate to discover new favorites.
16. We decided to swap our usual dinner plans for a picnic in the park.
17. During the game, we had to swap positions to balance the team's strengths and weaknesses.
18. They agreed to swap houses for the summer to experience life in a different city.
19. She offered to swap her dessert for my drink because she was craving something sweet.
20. In the meeting, employees were encouraged to swap ideas to foster creativity and collaboration.