

SWIG

Meaning: SWIG (verb): to take a large gulp or drink of a liquid.

1. He took a long swig from the bottle before passing it around the campfire.
2. After a quick swig of water, she felt rejuvenated and ready to continue the hike.
3. The bartender watched as he took a hearty swig of his favorite whiskey.
4. With a satisfied grin, she savored each swig of the rich, velvety hot chocolate.
5. It was a hot day, and he relished every swig of the chilled lemonade.
6. He took a long swig from the bottle before passing it to his friend.
7. After a hot day in the sun, she enjoyed a refreshing swig of lemonade.
8. With a confident grin, he took a swig of his favorite whiskey.
9. As the campfire crackled, they shared stories and took swigs from their flasks.
10. She savored every swig of the rich, dark coffee, feeling it warm her from the inside.
11. He took a long swig from his water bottle after the intense workout.
12. With a satisfied grin, she took a swig of her favorite craft beer.
13. After a long day at work, he enjoyed a swig of whiskey to unwind.
14. The hiker paused to take a swig of water before continuing up the steep trail.
15. She offered him a swig from her flask, knowing he needed a boost of energy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/swig>