

SYMPATHETIC

Meaning: Sympathetic: showing compassion, understanding, or kindness towards others' feelings or difficulties.

1. Her sympathetic nature made her the go-to person for friends in need.
2. The teacher was sympathetic to the struggles her students faced during exam season.
3. He gave her a sympathetic smile when she shared her troubles.
4. Although he was not directly involved, he felt a sympathetic connection to the community's plight.
5. She wrote a sympathetic letter to the family after hearing about their loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sympathetic>