

SYMPATHIES

Meaning: 'Sympathies' refers to feelings of compassion, understanding, or shared sorrow for someone else's misfortune or suffering.

1. Her sympathies lie with those who have suffered the most in this tragedy.
2. He expressed his sympathies in a heartfelt letter to the grieving family.
3. Many of his sympathies were extended to friends and colleagues during the difficult times.
4. The community came together to offer their sympathies and support to the victims.
5. She felt a deep sense of sympathies for the plight of the refugees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sympathies>