

SYNCHRONIZE

Meaning: To synchronize means to arrange or adjust events or actions to occur at the same time or in a coordinated manner.

1. We need to synchronize our schedules to ensure everyone can attend the meeting.
2. The dancers practiced tirelessly to synchronize their movements for the performance.
3. To avoid confusion during the presentation, make sure to synchronize your slides with my speech.
4. The software update will automatically synchronize your files across all devices.
5. Athletes train together to synchronize their efforts and improve team performance in competitions.
6. The dancers worked tirelessly to synchronize their movements for the performance.
7. To improve efficiency, the software was updated to synchronize data across all devices.
8. It's essential to synchronize your watch with the official time before the event starts.
9. The team used specialized software to synchronize their project timelines and avoid delays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/synchronize>