

SYNCOPE

Meaning: Syncope is a temporary loss of consciousness and muscle strength, often caused by a decrease in blood flow to the brain.

1. Syncope can occur due to dehydration or sudden changes in posture.
2. The patient experienced syncope during the medical examination, which raised concerns.
3. Doctors often conduct tests to determine the underlying causes of recurrent syncope.
4. In some cases, syncope may be a warning sign of more serious health issues.
5. Understanding the mechanisms of syncope is crucial for effective diagnosis and treatment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/syncope>