

SYNTONIZE

Meaning: Syntonize: to harmonize or align one's thoughts, feelings, or actions with those of another to foster connection or collaboration.

1. Therapists often aim to syntonize with their clients to build trust and understanding.
2. The team's ability to syntonize their efforts led to a highly successful project outcome.
3. In order to improve communication, the leaders worked to syntonize with the diverse perspectives within the group.
4. Musicians in an orchestra must syntonize their performances to create a harmonious sound.
5. To effectively lead the change, the manager needed to syntonize with the employees' concerns and aspirations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/syntonize>