

SYRINGE

Meaning: A syringe is a cylindrical device used for drawing in or ejecting liquids, typically equipped with a plunger and a needle for medical or laboratory purposes.

1. The nurse filled the syringe with the vaccine before administering it to the patient.
2. He carefully measured the liquid and drew it into the syringe for an accurate dosage.
3. After the procedure, she disposed of the used syringe in the designated sharps container.
4. He watched as the doctor used a syringe to extract blood for testing.
5. The pharmacist explained how to properly use a syringe for administering insulin at home.
6. The nurse carefully filled the syringe with the medication before administering the injection.
7. He winced as the doctor inserted the needle from the syringe into his arm.
8. For precision in the lab, she used a syringe to measure the exact amount of liquid needed for the experiment.
9. He kept a syringe in his first aid kit for emergencies involving allergic reactions.
10. The pharmacist demonstrated how to properly use a syringe to draw up the vaccine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/syringe>