

SYSTEMATIZE

Meaning: To systematize means to arrange or organize something according to a methodical system or structure for improved efficiency or consistency.

1. To enhance efficiency, we need to systematize our project management processes.
2. The researcher aims to systematize the data collection methods for better accuracy.
3. It is essential to systematize the training program to ensure consistent results across all teams.
4. By using software tools, we can systematize our inventory management and reduce errors.
5. The committee decided to systematize their approach to handling community feedback for future improvements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/systematize>