

TABORER

Meaning: A taborer is a musician who plays a tabor, a type of drum, often accompanying a pipe or flute to provide lively rhythms for dances and festivities.

1. The taborer played a lively tune that brought the villagers together for the festival.
2. With his drum in hand, the taborer set the rhythm for the dancers to follow.
3. As the taborer struck the drum, the crowd erupted in cheers and laughter.
4. Her grandfather was a talented taborer, known for his exceptional skill in traditional music.
5. In the medieval market, a taborer entertained passersby with his energetic beats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/taborer>