

TACHISTOSCOPE

Meaning: A tachistoscope is an apparatus used to present visual stimuli for brief durations in order to study perception and reaction times in psychological experiments.

1. The tachistoscope was used in psychological experiments to study visual perception.
2. In her research, she employed a tachistoscope to measure the reaction times of participants to different stimuli.
3. The invention of the tachistoscope revolutionized the way scientists understood rapid visual processing.
4. He adjusted the settings on the tachistoscope to present images at varying speeds during the test.
5. Many educational institutions began to incorporate the tachistoscope into their teaching methods for enhancing reading skills.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tachistoscope>