

TAFFERER

Meaning: A tafferer is a person who aggressively negotiates or advocates for their interests, often using high-pressure tactics.

1. The tafferer's relentless negotiation style often left others feeling cornered.
2. In the world of business, a skilled tafferer's expertise can make or break a deal.
3. Everyone knew that dealing with the tafferers at the market required both patience and cunning.
4. The tafferer's reputation for haggling over every penny was well known among the vendors.
5. She embraced her role as a tafferer's apprentice, eager to learn the art of persuasion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tafferer>