

TAFFRAIL

Meaning: Taffrail: the railing at the stern of a ship.

1. The crew gathered at the taffrail, watching the sun dip below the horizon.
2. She leaned against the taffrail, lost in thought as the waves crashed against the ship.
3. The intricate carvings on the taffrail added a touch of elegance to the vessel.
4. As the storm approached, the captain secured the lines at the taffrail to prevent any accidents.
5. He took a deep breath of salty air while standing at the taffrail, feeling the freedom of the open sea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/taffrail>