

TAG-RAG

Meaning: Tag-rag refers to a collection of worn-out or mismatched clothing, often in poor condition.

1. The old man wore a tag-rag that seemed to have seen better days.
2. As she rummaged through the attic, she discovered a tag-rag of mismatched clothes from her childhood.
3. The tag-rag group of misfits banded together to support one another through tough times.
4. He often referred to his collection of tag-rags as his personal treasure trove of memories.
5. Despite their shabby appearance, the tag-rags brought comfort to those who wore them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tag-rag>