

TAIL

Meaning: Tail: a long, flexible appendage that extends from the rear end of an animal or a stream of gas and dust that follows a comet.

1. The dog wagged its tail excitedly as it greeted its owner.
2. A comet's tail can stretch for millions of kilometers through space.
3. She tied her hair back with a ribbon, resembling a pony's tail.
4. The train's tail lights flickered as it pulled away from the station.
5. The cat playfully swatted at the tail of a passing butterfly.
6. The dog wagged its tail excitedly as it saw its owner approaching.
7. She carefully painted the long tail of the dragon in vibrant colors.
8. The comet's tail sparkled brightly against the dark night sky.
9. He tripped over the tail of his coat while rushing out the door.
10. The cat flicked its tail in annoyance when the dog got too close.
11. The dog wagged its tail excitedly when it saw its owner.
12. She noticed the long, elegant tail of the peacock as it displayed its feathers.
13. The comet's tail stretched across the night sky, leaving a shimmering trail.
14. He carefully balanced the model airplane as he adjusted the position of its tail.
15. The cat flicked its tail in annoyance when the dog approached too closely.
16. The cat flicked its tail in irritation as the dog approached.
17. A comet's tail stretched across the night sky, illuminating the darkness.
18. She braided her long hair and tied it with a ribbon that resembled a ponytail.
19. The dog wagged its tail excitedly when it saw its owner come home.
20. In the animated movie, the dragon's tail was a whimsical character in its own right.
21. She painted a beautiful mural of a dragon with a long, curling tail.
22. The kite soared high in the sky, its brightly colored tail fluttering in the wind.

23. He gently stroked the cat's silky tail while it purred contentedly on his lap.

24. In the animated movie, the mischievous fox had a bushy tail that always seemed to get him into trouble.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tail>