

TAINTURE

Meaning: Tainture refers to the color or dyeing of a material or the quality of its hue.

1. The tainture of the fabric was so vibrant that it caught everyone's eye at the gallery.
2. After the storm, the tainture of the landscape appeared more vivid than ever before.
3. He was concerned that the tainture of the wine would be affected by the improper storage.
4. The artist carefully chose a tainture that would evoke the emotions she wanted to capture in her painting.
5. With each brushstroke, the tainture began to transform the blank canvas into a stunning work of art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tainture>