

TAKER

Meaning: TAKER (noun): a person who accepts or receives something, often in a context where giving or sharing is also involved.

1. A true leader is not just a giver but also knows when to be a taker.
2. In negotiations, being a taker can sometimes lead to unexpected advantages.
3. She realized that being a taker in relationships often left her feeling unfulfilled.
4. The company's profits soared, but many employees felt like mere takers in a system that overlooked their contributions.
5. While some people are natural givers, others are more inclined to be takers in their interactions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/taker>