

TALIATION

Meaning: Retaliation is the act of responding to an attack or injury by inflicting harm or punishment in return.

1. Retaliation is often seen as a natural human response to perceived injustice.
2. The country faced international condemnation for its swift retaliation against the attack.
3. In a moment of anger, she considered retaliation against those who had wronged her.
4. The law aims to prevent retaliation against whistleblowers who expose wrongdoing.
5. Their retaliation was not only expected but also escalated the ongoing conflict.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/taliation>