

TALLOW

Meaning: TALLOW is a rendered form of animal fat, typically from cattle or sheep, used in making candles, soaps, and for finishing wood.

1. The artisan used tallow to create a smooth and durable finish on the wooden sculpture.
2. In the past, tallow was commonly used to make candles that burned brightly and evenly.
3. Many traditional recipes call for beef tallow as a cooking fat due to its rich flavor.
4. The survivalist emphasized the importance of tallow in crafting soaps and balms from natural ingredients.
5. As the candle melted, the scent of the tallow combined with the essential oils filled the room.
6. The artisan used tallow to create beautifully scented candles.
7. In traditional cooking, tallow was often used as a substitute for butter or oil.
8. She learned how to render tallow from beef fat to make her own soap at home.
9. The survivalist emphasized that tallow can be stored for a long time without spoiling.
10. During the 19th century, tallow was a common ingredient in the production of leather goods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tallow>