

TALLOWER

Meaning: TALLOWER: a person who renders animal fat, especially for making candles or soap.

1. The tallower carefully rendered the animal fat to create high-quality candles.
2. In the past, a tallower played an essential role in providing lighting for homes before the advent of electricity.
3. The local tallower's shop was filled with the rich scent of melting fat and beeswax.
4. As a profession, being a tallower required a deep understanding of the properties of different fats.
5. After years of hard work, the tallower finally opened his own store, showcasing handmade soaps and candles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tallower>