

TAMPER

Meaning: To tamper means to interfere with something in a harmful or unauthorized manner.

1. He was caught trying to tamper with the evidence at the crime scene.
2. It's illegal to tamper with a fire alarm, especially in public buildings.
3. She noticed someone had attempted to tamper with her car's ignition system.
4. The security measures are in place to prevent anyone from tampering with the equipment.
5. Tampering with a sealed package can lead to serious legal consequences.
6. The technician warned that anyone who attempts to tamper with the machinery could face serious consequences.
7. It's illegal to tamper with a person's mail, and doing so can result in hefty fines.
8. She noticed that someone had tried to tamper with the security system, leaving it vulnerable.
9. The investigation revealed that someone had tampered with the results of the experiment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tamper>