

TAMPING

Meaning: Tamping refers to the process of packing or compressing material, such as soil or gravel, to create a firm and stable surface.

1. Tamping down the soil around the young plants helped them establish strong roots.
2. He spent the afternoon tamping the gravel to create a stable base for the patio.
3. Tamping the coffee grounds ensures a rich flavor during the brewing process.
4. The construction crew was busy tamping the asphalt to ensure a smooth road surface.
5. She learned that tamping the sand correctly was essential for building a solid foundation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tamping>