

TANGIBLE

Meaning: Tangible refers to something that is perceptible by touch or capable of being clearly understood or realized, often relating to concrete results or connections.

1. The artist's sculpture provided a tangible connection to her emotions.
2. After months of hard work, they finally saw tangible results from their efforts.
3. The charity focused on projects that created tangible benefits for the local community.
4. His ideas were impressive, but the investors wanted something more tangible to evaluate.
5. The team's success was evident in the tangible improvements in their performance metrics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tangible>