

TANGLE

Meaning: TANGLE (noun): A confused or twisted mass of items, such as ropes or hair, that are intertwined or knotted together.

1. The children accidentally created a tangle of jump ropes during recess.
2. Her long hair would often tangle in the wind, requiring careful brushing afterward.
3. As we tried to unravel the fishing line, we discovered it was in an impossible tangle.
4. The plot of the movie became a complex tangle of secrets and lies.
5. He found himself in a tangle of emotions after hearing the unexpected news.
6. The children played with their colored strings, creating a delightful tangle of knots and loops.
7. After spending hours in the garden, I found my hair was a complete tangle from the wind.
8. Her thoughts were in a tangle, making it difficult for her to express her feelings clearly.
9. As the fishing line slipped through his fingers, it quickly formed a messy tangle in the water.
10. He tried to unravel the tangle of wires behind the television, but it only seemed to get worse.
11. The cables behind the television formed a tangled mess that took hours to sort out.
12. She tried to run her fingers through her hair, but it only made the tangles worse.
13. The storylines in the novel began to tangle together, making it hard to follow.
14. As the fishing line got caught in a tangle of seaweed, he sighed in frustration.
15. Their lives had become a complicated tangle of emotions and unspoken words.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tangle>