

TANGO

Meaning: Tango is a lively, rhythmic dance originating from Argentina, characterized by intricate footwork and close partner connection.

1. The couple took to the dance floor and began to tango with grace and passion.
2. She had always dreamed of learning to tango, captivated by its intricate footwork and rhythm.
3. During the festival, dancers from around the world gathered to showcase their tango skills.
4. The music swelled, and the room filled with the intoxicating energy of a live tango performance.
5. He felt a rush of excitement as he stepped into the spotlight to tango with his partner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tango>