

TANNIER

Meaning: TANNIER: A person who tans animal hides to produce leather, often skilled in enhancing its quality and design.

1. The tanner worked diligently to create softer and more durable leather from the hides.
2. After months of practice, she became the town's most skilled tanner, known for her intricate designs.
3. As a tanner, he understood the complexities of the tanning process and its impact on the final product.
4. The smell of freshly tanned leather filled the workshop, a testament to the tanner's expertise.
5. In ancient times, a skilled tanner was an essential member of the community, providing vital resources for clothing and tools.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tannier>