

TAPSTER

Meaning: Tapster: a person, especially in a tavern, who serves drinks, particularly alcoholic beverages.

1. The tapster poured a perfect pint of ale for the eager customer.
2. In medieval taverns, the tapster was a vital figure, serving drinks and sharing stories.
3. After a long day at work, he enjoyed unwinding at the pub, where the tapster knew his favorite drink.
4. With a friendly smile, the tapster welcomed everyone who entered the bustling bar.
5. She admired the tapster's skill as he effortlessly filled glass after glass during the busy evening rush.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tapster>