TARDATION

Meaning: TARDATION: a delay or slowing in the normal progression of development or function, particularly in speech or mental processes.

1. The child's speech showed a clear sign of tardation, prompting the parents to seek help.
2. In medical terms, tardation refers to a delay in the normal progression of development.
3. His tardation in completing the assignment was concerning to his teachers.
4. The report highlighted the tardation of cognitive skills in some children due to environmental factors.
5. Despite her tardation in learning, she eventually excelled in her studies with the right support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tardation