

TARGETEER

Meaning: Targeteer: a professional who specializes in identifying and analyzing specific demographics or audiences for marketing purposes.

1. The targeteer skillfully identified the most profitable demographics for the new marketing campaign.
2. As a targeteer, her job involved analyzing data to refine audience segmentation effectively.
3. In the world of advertising, a talented targeteer can make all the difference in reaching potential customers.
4. The targeteer presented a comprehensive report that highlighted the best strategies for product placement.
5. With the help of a seasoned targeteer, the company managed to boost its sales significantly in just a few months.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/targeteer>