

TARN

Meaning: A tarn is a small mountain lake or pool, often formed by glacial activity.

1. The hikers stopped to rest by the serene tarn nestled in the mountain valley.
2. We discovered a hidden tarn while exploring the rugged terrain of the national park.
3. The artist captured the reflection of the sky in the tarn's still waters in her painting.
4. As the sun set, the tarn glowed with hues of orange and pink, creating a breathtaking view.
5. Wildlife gathered around the tarn, drawn by the fresh water in the otherwise dry landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tarn>