

TARPUM

Meaning: TARPUM: A protective cover or tarpaulin used in fishing or maritime contexts to shield equipment or catch from the elements.

1. The fisherman skillfully maneuvered the tarpum to catch the large fish swimming near the reef.
2. During the storm, the tarpum provided essential protection for the fragile equipment on the deck.
3. As the sun set, the tarpum cast a warm glow over the campsite, creating a cozy atmosphere.
4. The artist used a tarpum to cover her canvas, ensuring it remained dry during the unexpected rain.
5. In the coastal town, the locals often used tarpum to shield their boats from harsh weather conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tarpum>