

TASTELESS

Meaning: TASTELESS: lacking aesthetic appeal or refinement; unrefined or in poor taste.

1. The design of the new restaurant was so tasteless that it overshadowed the quality of the food.
2. Despite its tasteless decor, the old diner had a charm that kept customers coming back.
3. I found the film to be tasteless, lacking any real depth or meaningful content.
4. His jokes were often tasteless, leaving many of his friends feeling uncomfortable.
5. The party was ruined by a tasteless prank that offended several guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tasteless>