

TATCH

Meaning: Tatch (verb): To blend or join materials, especially colors or surfaces, in a seamless or rhythmic manner.

1. The artist used a unique technique known as tatch to blend colors seamlessly on the canvas.
2. As the storm approached, the old barn's roof began to tatch, creating a rhythmic drumming sound.
3. In her pottery class, she learned to tatch the clay to ensure a smooth finish on her bowls.
4. The chef decided to tatch the ingredients together, enhancing the flavors of the dish.
5. He was known for his ability to tatch different musical styles into a captivating performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tatch>