

TATTLER

Meaning: TATTLER: a person who reports others' wrongdoing or secrets, often to gain attention or create gossip.

1. The office gossip was known as a tattler, always eager to share the latest rumors.
2. Children often find themselves in trouble for being tattlers, revealing secrets that should remain private.
3. Despite his reputation as a tattler, she valued his honesty and often sought his perspective.
4. In the small town, the tattler was both feared and revered for their knowledge of everyone's business.
5. Being labeled a tattler made her hesitant to share her observations, fearing backlash from her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tattler>