

TAUNTER

Meaning: A taunter is a person who mocks or ridicules others, often in a scornful or teasing manner.

1. The taunter reveled in mocking his opponent's every mistake during the game.
2. Despite being the target of a relentless taunter, she held her head high and refused to react.
3. His reputation as a taunter made others wary of sharing their vulnerabilities around him.
4. In a desperate attempt to silence the taunter, she confronted him with her own truths.
5. The playful banter between friends often included a taunter who pushed the limits of humor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/taunter>