

TAUTOLOGY

Meaning: Tautology is the unnecessary repetition of an idea or statement in different words, often leading to redundancy and lack of clarity in communication.

1. A tautology can make an argument seem redundant and unconvincing.
2. In his speech, he employed a tautology that left the audience confused rather than enlightened.
3. The phrase "free gift" is often cited as a classic example of tautology in everyday language.
4. Understanding tautology is crucial for analyzing logical reasoning and avoiding fallacies.
5. Writers should strive to eliminate tautology to enhance clarity and precision in their work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tautology>