

TEARLESS

Meaning: Tearless refers to a state of being without tears, often characterized by calmness or emotional restraint in response to a situation.

1. She faced the news with a tearless composure that surprised everyone around her.
2. The tearless moment felt surreal as the crowd erupted into applause at the end of the performance.
3. Even in the midst of chaos, he remained tearless, embodying a strength that inspired those around him.
4. Her tearless expression belied the turmoil she felt inside, as she struggled to maintain her dignity.
5. Although the film was emotional, I found myself tearless, captivated more by its artistry than its sadness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tearless>