

TEASPOONFUL

Meaning: Teaspoonful: a measure of the volume that a teaspoon can hold, typically used in cooking or serving, equivalent to about 5 milliliters.

1. She added a teaspoonful of sugar to her tea.
2. The recipe called for a teaspoonful of vanilla extract.
3. He measured out a teaspoonful of salt for the soup.
4. Just a teaspoonful of the spice can enhance the flavor significantly.
5. For the dressing, mix in a teaspoonful of mustard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/teaspoonful>