

TECHNICALNESS

Meaning: Technicalness refers to the quality or state of being technical, characterized by specialized knowledge or complexity that may be difficult for non-experts to comprehend.

1. The technicalness of the report made it difficult for laypersons to understand.
2. In the realm of engineering, technicalness is often necessary to convey complex concepts accurately.
3. Her presentation was impressive, but the technicalness of the subject matter went over many heads.
4. The software's technicalness requires a steep learning curve for new users.
5. Despite the technicalness involved, he managed to explain the process in a way that was accessible to everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/technicalness>