

TEDIOUS

Meaning: Tedious: marked by a lack of variety and interest; causing weariness or boredom due to being long, repetitive, or monotonous.

1. The process of assembling the furniture was tedious and took much longer than expected.
2. She found the lecture on tax regulations to be utterly tedious and struggled to stay awake.
3. After hours of tedious paperwork, he was relieved to finally submit the application.
4. The long and tedious journey across the desert tested everyone's patience and endurance.
5. She often turned to audiobooks to make her tedious commute more enjoyable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tedious>