

TEEMLESS

Meaning: Teemless: lacking abundance or presence of life or activity; barren.

1. The once vibrant pond now appeared teemless, devoid of life and movement.
2. After the drought, the riverbed lay teemless, with only dry stones to mark its passage.
3. Despite the lush forest surrounding it, the garden was eerily teemless, lacking the usual buzz of insects.
4. The teemless expanse of the desert stretched for miles, offering no signs of vegetation or animals.
5. In the aftermath of the storm, the usually bustling street felt teemless and desolate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/teemless>