

TEETER

Meaning: To teeter means to move unsteadily or to sway back and forth, often on the verge of losing balance.

1. The child began to teeter on the edge of the curb, giggling as she tried to maintain her balance.
2. As the earthquake struck, the tall buildings seemed to teeter precariously before stabilizing once again.
3. During the performance, the acrobat managed to teeter on a single tightrope while juggling flaming torches.
4. She could feel her confidence teetering as she faced the audience, unsure of how her speech would be received.
5. The old bridge appeared to teeter under the weight of the heavy trucks that passed over it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/teeter>